The historic town of Trogir is one of the most beautiful and most visited towns on the entire Dalmatian coast, located 20 kilometres west of Split. However, due to its location close to the bustling city centres, it offers a secluded retreat that will provide homeowners with plenty of privacy and comfort. The town is a museum of medieval heritage and in 1997 its historic centre was inscribed on the UNESCO World Heritage List. The airport is located in the town of Kaštela, approximately 13 km from the centre of Trogir.
